MANY PEOPLE AT REUNIONS

Three Associations Met Today at the Rush County Fair Grounds.

The Innis Association, and the Bell and Williams Families Out in Full.

Leaving out fair time and Old Settlers' Day, the Rush county fair grounds today assumed about the liveliest appearance that it has for some considerable time. The occasion was the annual reunions of the Innis, Bell and Williams families, all of whom chose the fair grounds as a meeting place.

The Innis reunion was attended by 110 members of the family or their friends. The family chose the old Walker dining hall as its headquarters. People were present from Tipton county, Clinton county, Marion and Rush counties. The president of the association is Perry T. Innis, of Milroy, and the secretary is Miss Erma Richey.

A big basket dinner was served at noon. Of all the families gathered in reunion at the fair grounds today, the Innis family possesses perhaps the most interesting history.

The word Innis signifies "little island" and would indicate that the family originally was an island people. The family had its origin in a district of Argyshire, in West Scotland and it was then known as the Innis clan. The founder was Francis Innis. He and his family came to America in 1749 and settled in the Tuscarora Valley in Pennsylvania. They entered land at a point about one mile south of the present town of McCordsville. In 1756, the entire family was taken captive by Chief Beaver King and his band of Indians. The children, Jane, Nathaniel and Mary were separated from their parents and Mary was drowned by the Indians because of her tender years and the trouble she made for the savages. The father, because he refused to work on Sunday was made to "run the gauntlet" but he lived through the ordeal. He was then sentenced to be burned at the stake for some trivial offense. He had been chained to the post and the fire started, when a Frenchman purchased him from the Indians. He was taken to Canada, where he repaid the Frenchman for buying his freedom. The father then found his wife at Montreal, Canada, where she had succeeded in making her way. It was at Montreal that James, the descendants of whom gathered at the fair ground today, was born. Nathaniel, the other son, was returned to his parents, but he had assumed the manner and habits of the Indians and preferred to live as such. James grew up and was a patriot soldier during the Revolutionary war, serving under General Wayne. He was twice married, his first wife being Anne Arbuckle. To them were born, James, John (grandfather of Samuel Innis, of this city) Alexander (grandfather of Robert A. Innis, of this city), Nathaniel, Joseph, Frank, Anne, William and Elizabeth. Mrs. Rebekah Arbuckle, west of this city, is a descendant of Joseph Innis.

W. W. Innis, of Tipton, is writing a history of the family for publication. He read what he has thus far prepared, before the gathering this afternoon.

Among those from a distance who attended the Innis reunion were William Durham and family, W. W. Innis and son Allen, Alzena Innis, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jones, Misses Clara and Ora Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stage, all of Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Shannon, of Atlanta, Ind.; James M. Innis and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Wiley, of Shelbyville; Mrs. Fred Boyd, Indianapolis, and the Misses Ethel and Jennie Powers, of Anderson.

WILLIAMS FAMILY.

The Williams reunion was attended by about eighty people. The east dining hall was chosen as headquarters and it was at this place that the big basket dinner was served.

Those of this family who gathered together today are descendants of Isaac and Margaret Williams. The former was born June 6th, 1785, in the mountains of Tennessee. He married Margaret Anne Arnold in 1808. Two children, Nancy, afterward Mrs. Heaton, and William, were born to them in Tennessee. In 1813 Isaac brought his family to Indiana and settled in Franklin county, where another son, John, was born. In 1819, the parents removed to Noble township, this county, where they died, and where their descendants have grown to be influential and prosperous farmers. The old home place is located one mile north of New Salem. Isaac Williams died September 6th, 1853, and his wife died September 15th, 1871, while she was in her eighty-third year.

Among those from a distance who attended the Williams reunion were Mrs. Jane Beaver, of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Harriet Beaver, and Pearl Wamsley, New Salem; Mrs. Harriet Hunt, Harvey Creston, wife and two sons and James Westfall and family, of Marion, Ind.; William Strubb and wife, of Wabash county, and George and James Williams and Curt Burgoyne, of Franklin county. The Williams Association elected its officers this afternoon.

THE BELL FAMILY.

The Bell family chose as its headquarters Agricultural Hall. In all about seventy-five were present. The president of the association is Bert Bell, of Connersville; vice president is Will H. McMillin, of this county, and the secretary is Miss Maggie Boyd, of Indianapolis.

Those who gathered at this reunion today are descended from John and Margaret Bell. The former was born in Kentucky in 1803 and the latter was born in North Carolina, the exact date of her birth not being definitely known.

John Bell and his wife were married in 1828, in Union county, Ind. They removed to Center township, this county, where they made their permanent residence. Eleven children were born to them, five of whom are still living. These children bore double names and their parents always addressed them by both. They are: Hugh Washington, John Madison, Malinda Jane (afterwards Mrs. William Johnson, and then Mrs. Rankin Boyd), William Sebin, Nancy Louisa (afterwards Mrs. Mary Hudelson, who died recently), Charity Melisena, (afterwards Mrs. Charity Bell, Mr. Bell being of another family), Samuel Jefferson (who died a short time ago), Joseph Monroe, Margaret Anne, who died when a child, Archey B., and Mary Henrietta, now Mrs. Cicero Newhouse.

Three generations of the Bell family were present at the reunion today. The only members of the family from without the county who were present were Bert Bell and family, of Connersville, and Miss Maggie Boyd, of Indianapolis.

Joseph Bell was perhaps the oldest member present. A photograph of him and his six children, and fourteen grandchildren was taken by Ora Marts.

After dinner, the three families joined in a union meeting in the grand stand. An eloquent address was delivered by Rev. F. B. Thomas, pastor of Little Flatrock church. Songs were sung and recitations were given by members of the younger generations of the three families. Papers were read, talks were made and a splendid social time was enjoyed. The members of the three families did not leave the grounds until late this evening.

One feature of the day's enjoyment was a ball game between teams chosen from the Innis and Williams families.

—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Retherford have returned home from a visit with relatives in Madison and Grant counties.

Will Carson, who returned recently from a two weeks' outing at Crooked Lake, says that Crooked Lake is a great place to fish. He and his party on one evening caught 100 Blue Gill fish. On another evening 15 boats went out upon the lake and after fishing one and one-half hours, returned with 1000 fish. The Blue Gill fish weighed from one-fourth of a pound to one-half pound. Some Pickerel and other fish caught weighed as much as 5 pounds.

REVIEWS THE COOK MURDER

Congressman Watson Tells How Cook Had Shadowed Mrs. Bankert.

For Weeks He Followed Her, Always Appearing at Unexpected Times.

In an interview published in an Indianapolis paper, Congressman Watson, who is one of Mrs. Bankert's attorneys, and who is now in New York City, speaks as follows of the defendant's side of the tragedy:

"About ten days prior to the fatal Saturday," said Mr. Watson, "Mr. Stamper White, of Glenwood, on whose farm the Bankerts had lived for thirteen years before moving to their present place last March, paid a visit to the Bankerts. He had never seen their new place, so Mr. Bankert not being home, Mrs. Bankert and her two boys took their old friend for a trip over the land. They visited the hog pen, looked at the cows, inspected the corn and finally sat down for a short rest at the edge of a melon patch.

"Meanwhile, Mr. Bankert had returned home, heard of Mr. White's presence and set out to find his wife and friend. He saw them first as they were approaching the melon patch. But he saw something else at the same time—something that had no place in the picture.

"A man was following Mrs. Bankert and Mr. White—a man who dodged behind trees, skulked below a hedge, wormed his way through swales in the ground and ran across the open places. This man was Cook, his hired hand.

"When Mr. White left for his home that evening, Bankert sought Cook and demanded to know why he was shadowing his (Bankert's) wife. Cook gave as excuse his desire to learn whether Mr. White would tell Mrs. Bankert of his (Cook's) discharge by a farmer now located on Mr. White's land. Drunkenness had been the cause, but Cook claimed this a slander. He wanted to know, he said, whether Mr. White was a party to such gossip.

"Other than some glances detected by both Mr. Bankert and his wife, this was the first intimation they had of any serious malefic design on the part of Cook toward Mrs. Bankert. The husband, knowing Cook's bad record, became uneasy. His wife, however, said she did not fear, anyway she was able to take care of herself.

"A day or two later word reached the Bankerts that Cook was circulating in Glenwood a scandalous story about himself and Mrs. Bankert. This was to the effect that Bankert had discovered him (Cook) in the Bankert house seated on Mrs. Bankert's lap, and had immediately proceeded to kick both off the premises.

"This story weighed so on the Bankerts' minds that they went to Glenwood and spent two days in correcting the gossip and seeking evidence against Cook's criminal fabrications. While there a Mrs. May, an old friend of Mrs. Bankert, said to her:

"'Anna that man will make trouble for you. He may even injure you. Aren't you afraid?'

"'I am not,' Mrs. Bankert answered. 'If he attacks me I'll fill him as full of bullet holes as a sieve.'

"Several days later Mrs. Bankert came to Rushville to Mrs. Levi, a dressmaker, to have a dress made. After two or three days she returned to have the dress tried on. Mrs. Levi greeted her effusively.

"'I'm so glad to see you again,' she exclaimed. 'Don't you know when you left here the other day I thought sure something would happen to you. A man was following you. He was a large man and sneaked along like—why there he is now!'

"Mrs. Levi pointed through a window at a figure on the sidewalk. Mrs. Bankert followed her direction and saw—Cook.

"From Mrs. Levi's Cook followed Mrs. Bankert around town to several places where she had business. As she passed the J. M. & I. railroad station on her way home he accosted her, but she paid no attention to what he said.

"Saturday afternoon, a day or two after this episode, Cook came to Rushville, drank a good deal of liquor and told everybody he met that he had an engagement at 3 p. m. with Mrs. Bankert. This was a bold untruth. He also exhibited letters purporting to have been written to him by her. These were Mrs. Bankert's letters, alright, but they had not been written to Cook. He had stolen them, as well as Mrs. Bankert's photo and was careful to only exhibit their signature. This was a scheme for character defamation clearly born of the man's moral depravity.

"Finally that afternoon he went to the Bankert home and to his death. The story of the insult and the shooting told by Mrs. Bankert is coherent. The only mystery is that of the razor, and this one is of importance.

"My client swears to me as one of her lawyers, as one from whom nothing should be hidden that she did not use the razor and does not know how Cook was cut, unless it was by accident when he fell.

"The defense will have a strong case. We will prove Cook to have been of the lowest moral type and of criminal inclination; we will prove that his desires toward Mrs. Bankert were not encouraged on her part—were bred only in his vicious imagination; we will prove that he attempted an assault on our client, threatening her and her household with death; we will prove that her act of taking his life was in defense of her honor and her person."

DIES SUDDENTLY WHILE IN A BARN

Albert Loftler, of Andersonville Found by Friends as Death Came.

Albert Loftler, a highly esteemed young man of Andersonville, dropped to the floor of his barn, Tuesday evening, in a critical condition from heart trouble, and it is not known how long he lay there in death's agony, but he died shortly after he was discovered by his friends.

Young Loftler was a gardener, and having finished a hard day's work in his strawberry patch, he started to the barn to put away some tools which he had been working with, where it seem that he was stricken into an unconscious condition. At least, he did not come out of the barn again, and his friends, fearing that some calamity had overtaken him, went to the barn only to see Loftler making his last fight for life.

As has been stated young Loftler was a gardener, and he had scores of friends who learn of his untimely death with sorrow.

SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Myrtle Aldridge and Luther Renegar will be united in marriage at 6 o'clock this evening at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. V. W. Teyis. They will be at home to their many friends at 1015 West Fifth street, Anderson, Ind., after October 1st. The bride-elect is a daughter of Charles Aldridge and is one of the county's most popular and charming young women. The groom-elect bears the reputation of being a highly industrious and honorable young man.

CHURCH NEWS

A series of successful revival meetings is being conducted at the Fairview Christian church by Rev. S. M. Hawthorne. The meetings will continue over Sabbath.

—Rev. H. Rabb, who with his family, is at Winona Lake, writes that there will be no services Sunday at Shiloh church, of which he is pastor. He says that he and his family are enjoying themselves hugely. Great crowds continue to come to Winona and everyone has a good time. Monday, however, a young man met death by drowning while bathing in the lake.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Are Now Turned Upon Portsmouth, New Hampshire With Eager Attention.

The Outlook for Peace is by No Means Promising at This Time.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 23.—Latest information is that Baron Komura has agreed to offer the president's compromise proposition. A high authority believes it impossible that a final rupture can come today, no matter what the character of the emperor's final instructions to Mr. Witte may be.

"If the negotiations can be prolonged into next week," said he, "so much pressure will be brought to bear upon the emperor that he will not be able to resist."

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 23.—The Associated Press is now in a position to reveal substantially the suggestion of President Roosevelt for breaking the existing deadlock in the peace negotiations and rescuing the conference from failure. His solution would ingeniously permit the satisfaction of the Japanese demands for reimbursement for the cost of the war, and at the same time enable Russia to face the world with the declaration that she had not ceded a foot of territory or paid a kopeck of war tribute to the victor. The solution is the one which has heretofore been described in dispatches as the natural and logical compromise. Tersely stated, it consists of an agreement by Russia to repurchase possession of either all or half of the Island of Sakhalin now in the military occupation of the Japanese, for a sum the amount of which, if the two countries cannot agree, shall be decided by some method of arbitration hereafter to be determined. The purchase money, together with the sum Japan would obtain from the cession of the Chinese Eastern railroad and the maintenance of the Russian prisoners in Japan, would, it is estimated, about equal the amount claimed by Japan as her bill for the cost of the war. Possibly, therefore, the solution offered by the president involves recession by Japan upon Article 5 (the cession of Sakhalin), and recession by Japan upon Article 9 (indemnity). It seems practically certain, though this cannot be affirmed positively, that the president has been able to give Mr. Witte substantial assurances that Japan would be willing to accept such a compromise. This is apparently supported by the authoritative Japanese statement made last night in the reply to a question as to whether Japan has not decided to make substantial concessions, "It all depends upon Russia."

BRAKEMAN IS FATALLY HURT

Edward Grimes Caught Between the Draw Bars of Two Cars at Connersville.

Edward Grimes, a Big Four brakeman on the Whitewater division, was fatally injured at Connersville, yesterday. Grimes stepped in between two cars to couple them and was caught between the draw bars. He was crushed about the abdomen and hips.

Grimes is about twenty-four years of age and unmarried. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grimes, of Laurel. He has only been in the employ of the Big Four about two months, and previous to that was employed at the Connersville Blower works, where his brother, John Grimes, is still employed.

While on the coach at a store after being injured and asking that his friends be notified, Grimes spoke of his mother. "Tell her," he said, "that it is my hand that is hurt badly."

EXAMINATION DATES

Tests for Civil Service Places Will be Held in September.

The United States Civil Service Commission will hold examinations Sept. 13th and 14th at Evansville, Ft. Wayne, Indianapolis and Lafayette to secure eligibles to fill a vacancy in the position of architectural and structural draughtsman at $1500 a year in the quartermaster's department at large, Washington, D. C., and vacancies as they may occur. At the same places September 13th, there will be held an examination for trained nurses (female) at $600 a year. There is a vacancy in the Indian service at Carson, Nev., and eligibles are wanted for other vacancies. Persons failing to attain an eligible average in this examination may still enter the regular test Oct. 18th. Trained nurses are wanted for the Panama Canal service, and examinations for this service also will be held Sept. 13th, at the four Indiana cities mentioned. Both men and women are wanted as nurses on the Isthmus. The pay is $50 a month with broad quarters.

MORE MEN PUT TO WORK ON BRIDGE

Twenty-three Colored Men Arrive from Cincinnati—Large Number at Work.

In order to hurry the work on the big concrete bridges at Williams Creek, Whitney, Wilk & Stewart, the contractors, are importing more men from different points. Monday, twenty-three colored men from Cincinnati were put to work. In all, nearly one hundred men are at work at this place. Work has been begun on several of the smaller bridges between this city and Connersville. The work on the Flatrock bridge, east of this city, and the Little Williams Creek bridge is progressing very nicely. It is not yet known exactly when work will be commenced upon the grade.

THE PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

For Plenty of Oil at the Buena Vista Oil Well—Interest is Lacking.

According to the latest reports from the Buena Vista oil fields the prospect for a successful well is very bright. Monday the well, which contained some three hundred feet of oil and water, was pumped dry and driller, W. A. Mull, of this city, gave it as his opinion that the well gave promise of plenty of the pay fluid. Of the contents pumped out there was a great quantity of salt water, one of the best signs that there can be that there is oil there, while about twice the amount of oil was obtained as at the previous pumping.

Experts who have viewed the well state that there is plenty of material there to be developed and the same will now be shot in a few days, so it was announced yesterday by Vice President of the company, Mr. O'Connell.

Notwithstanding these reports there seems to be little interest in the well. People there have ceased to talk about it.

Frank Taylor, the popular center fielder on the Rushville ball team is coaching a youngster at his house, that were it boy, would, no doubt, outrival Frank as a ball player. As it is a girl, however, Frank must be content with developing his new arrival into an enthusiastic base ball fan. When the next game is played the fans may not be surprised at anything Frank does. Another one of those home runs may be forth coming.

ARE WAGING A BITTER FIGHT

Doctors in the Yellow Fever District Satisfied With Situation.

The Death Rate is as Small as Can be Under Existing Circumstances.

New Orleans, Aug. 23.—New cases, 57; total to date, 1,503; deaths, 9; total deaths to date, 214; new foci, 21; total, 342; cases under treatment, 319.

New Orleans, Aug. 23.—The fact that there was little change yesterday in the record for several days past was accepted by the federal authorities as confirming their expressions of the encouraging nature of the yellow fever situation. In every visitation that New Orleans has had August and September have been the months of most frightful mortality, August producing a death list of 5,133 in 1853 and September a death list of 1,800 in 1878. The fever fighters therefore contend that if the disease is held in check at the very period when it ought to be on an ascending scale of virulence and when both the cases and deaths should be leaping to alarming figures, there is no reason why they should reserve opinion that the worst is over. Nevertheless, the word has gone down the line from headquarters that there must be no cessation of the measures that have been recommended as necessary to continue control of the situation. Relaxation now would only give the fever a chance to get a fresh hold on the community, and with three months before frost it is felt that any want of vigilance may undo all the good that has already been done.

With this idea in mind all the forces engaged in the work of education are redoubling their efforts and nightly meetings in the churches and public halls are to continue as long as a vestige of the fever remains.

The deaths yesterday were again principally of persons bearing foreign names. An exception was Arthur Hill, employe of one of the large wholesale drygoods houses. Hill came here recently from New York with his wife and children.

Some of the country towns are seeking to avoid a clash with the state board of health in the matter of quarantine in a way calculated to be damaging to New Orleans. Lake Charles is an instance. The fear of fever is so great there that the people refuse to accept any freight whatever from here. Additional nurses were sent to Patterson and Riverside, both in St. Mary parish. "At these two points exist the largest number of cases anywhere outside of the limits of the city, where the fever continues very mild."

Among yesterday's telegrams was one from the Democratic campaign manager, Thomas Taggart of Indianapolis. Mr. Taggart wrote of his intense sympathy and offered large contributions of water from French Lick for the hospitals and for poor patients. The offer was accepted.

LARGE CROWD AT THE CARNIVAL

First Night of the Catholic Young Men's Carnival is a Big Success.

A crowd of some six or seven hundred people last night attended the opening of the carnival being held by the young men of the Catholic church, at the church park.

The first night was a decided success. In all $487 was taken in. There was a shooting gallery, a country store, fish pond, baby rack, "high dive," (and it is certainly most awe-inspiring one), a "Maud and Si" show and a moving picture show, in charge of H. C. Wolverton, besides numerous stands and other interesting features. The Rushville band furnished music last night and will play again tonight. The carnival will probably end tonight.

Reports from Iowa recently say that Secretary Shaw is a prominent candidate for the presidential nomination. Other reports say that Governor Cummins also is to be a candidate. At his stage of proceedings we do not see why Iowa should not have two candidates as well as one. It may give the people some relief from the monotony of the inter-campaign season. When the time comes, however, Indiana expects to present the man who is to be the next President.

No better illustration can be offered of President Roosevelt's diplomacy than the informal way in which he brought the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries together recently. He was frank and straightforward in his manner and so far as anyone man is concerned he did as much as could be done to set in motion the conference free from the fustian stiffness that until recently was supposed to be necessary to proceedings of this sort. The truth is that Theodore Roosevelt seems to understand himself in whatever realm he finds himself in or in whatever he undertakes.

The teachers' institute is now over and the time is rapidly approaching when the public schools will open. No doubt many of the teachers have been preparing themselves during the vacation for more efficiency in their work. More is expected today of the teachers than in the bygone days. The twentieth-century standards are higher than they were in the ages gone before. Better service is expected from the servants of the people in our day of the square deal. The cry has gone forth for better men and better women. The country is looking forward to the boys and girls to fill this demand. The State expects the teacher to do for the child what the indifferent, careless parent has left undone. The course of study today embraces, as well as an education of the head, a perfect manhood and womanhood.

serve as speaker last winter by great exertion of will power. He failed rapidly in health after the session and recently he suggested the operation in hopes of prolonging his life. He was brought here a few days ago, but the operation was delayed in hopes that he might gain strength for it.

Mayor Holtzman has finally gone through the formality of announcing his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for mayor. He said: "While not seeking renomination, if my party is pleased with my administration and sees fit to renominate me next Saturday, I will gladly make the race again, believing that I owe it to my party to answer its demand." Mayor Holtzman will be renominated without opposition, as will William Fogarty, city clerk. There are five candidates for police judge but Mayor Holtzman is for James L. Mitchell, and the latter will probably win. Mayor Holtzman figures that Charles A. Bookwalter, the Republican candidate, is no stronger than he was two years ago, and that he can defeat him.

Colored Boy Enslaved.
Valdosta, Ga., Aug. 23.—Deputy U. S. Marshal Goodwin has arrested a negro, William Strickland, at Bacontown, on the charge of violating the espionage law. It is claimed that Strickland has been holding a negro boy named Henry Sterling in "involuntary servitude." Strickland got the boy in South Carolina and kept him at work. He whipped the boy and the boy ran away, whereupon Strickland is said to have had him arrested under the labor contract law. He then had the boy released on his promise to work out the matter, and has since held him in his service.

Pacholke's horse took fright at the persistent tooting of the horn on the machine and a runaway resulted, the plaintiff receiving injuries which caused the amputation of his left leg.

AMBASSADOR RESIGNS
Edwin H. Conger Leaves Diplomatic Service.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Aug. 23.—Edwin H. Conger of Iowa has resigned his post as American ambassador to Mexico, to take effect Oct. 18 next, and President Roosevelt has accepted the resignation.

Mr. Conger's retirement from the diplomatic service was foreshadowed in these dispatches last week. It was indicated then that he might be sent to Pekin as a special commissioner of the president to adjust, if possible, the differences which have arisen between this country and China over the boycott of American goods by some of the Chinese commercial guilds. While no official statement is obtainable here regarding that mission, there are reasons for the statement that it either has been abandoned by the president or that it has been declined by Mr. Conger. At any rate it is believed Conger will not go to China. It has not been determined definitely yet who will succeed Mr. Conger as ambassador to Mexico, but, as heretofore stated, it probably will be David E. Thompson of Nebraska, now American ambassador to Brazil. It is known that Ambassador Thompson desires the Mexican post.

General Strike in Poland.
Warsaw, Aug. 23.—Owing to the strong military measures adopted, the strike will not become absolutely general. Many shops are open and only a few banks, insurance companies and commercial offices are closed. Still, the situation is serious. Practically all the factories at Warsaw and Lodz are closed. Serious rioting has occurred at the latter place, the strikers forcing the shops to close by smashing the windows. The strike on the state railways and tramways continues and telegraphic communication between Lodz and Warsaw is discontinued. The newspapers are not appearing at Lodz.

Bad Wreck Reported.
Topeka, Kan., Aug. 23.—A report has just reached here that five people have been killed and a number injured in a wreck on the Union Pacific near Rossville, Kan., about eighteen miles west of here.

Yeoman's Brave Deed.
Washington, Aug. 23.—Secretary Bonaparte has sent a letter of commendation to Charles Dick Sutton, yeoman of the first class on the Hancock. On July 30 Sutton rescued from drowning H. G. Miller, an apprentice seaman attached to the Detroit, then at Boston. The secretary in his letter says: "The promptness and forgetfulness of self displayed by you in the successful effort to rescue a shipmate from drowning merits and receives the commendation of the department."

Plunger Goes to Oyster Bay.
New York, Aug. 23.—The United States naval submarine boat Plunger, which was ordered to Oyster Bay by President Roosevelt to give an exhibition of its diving ability, left the navy yard in Brooklyn late yesterday for Oyster Bay. She was conveyed by the naval tug Apache.

DEEPEST MYSTERY

Surrounds the Disappearance at Hammond of E. G. Davidson.

MURDER IS SUSPECTED

Was Involved in Labor Troubles and Life Had Been Threatened.

Believed His Body Was Thrown in the River and Stream Is Being Dragged.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 23.—Mystery surrounds the disappearance of R. H. Davidson, a wealthy contractor of this city, that neither the police nor his family are able successfully to solve. The South Chicago police discovered the body of a man floating in the Calumet river a short distance from this city, last Friday, and suspecting that it might be the body of Davidson, who disappeared mysteriously Aug. 8, they made efforts to take the body from the water. The body sank as they attempted to to drag it to shore, and has not been recovered.

Davidson is known to have had differences with a labor union, members of which are said to have made threats against his life. The police believe the search in the river confirms their suspicions that Davidson met death in the river, and say they will be able to show that he was killed by enemies or took his own life. Davidson came to Hammond from Rochester, Ind., where he is well known. His wife was Miss Verne Brugh, a belle of Leiters Ford, Ind., who also has relatives in Rochester and Hammond. Dynamite is being used to explode in the river, and renewed efforts are to be made to recover the body.

HEAP MUCH CROWD
Attendance at Red Men's Celebration Estimated From 25,000 to 40,000.

Frankfort, Ind., Aug. 23.—A crowd variously estimated at from 25,000 to 40,000 people attended the Wabash Valley Redmen's pow-wow in this city yesterday. There were 15,000 Red Men in the line of parade, including the Anderson and Lafayette uniform drill corps. Congressman Cromer marched with the Anderson corps.

At the fair grounds speeches were made by Judge J. V. Kent of Frankfort, J. G. Coffman of Muncie, great sachem of Indiana; J. E. Sedgwick of Martinsville, great prophet of Indiana, and E. E. Neel of Noblesville. There was a fine program of races in the afternoon, and a magnificent display of fireworks in the evening.

Death of Aged Editor.

Shelbyville, Ind., Aug. 23.—William H. Green, the veteran printer and publisher, but who retired many years ago from active business life as far as the printing business is concerned, died here yesterday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. P. D. Harris. Mr. Green was ninety-one years of age, yet he maintained his mental faculties perfectly. He was the auditor of Fayette county for two terms, many years ago. He was an Odd Fellow, and will be buried by that order at Connersville on Wednesday, August 23, the remains being taken to that place that day. Mr. Gree was engaged in the newspaper business at Brookville, Connersville and Evansville, in this state. He was also a prominent member of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Wants $25,000 Damages.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 23.—George Hargrove and John Boyle, organizers of the United Mine Workers, who were beaten by coal and iron police in West Virginia, are to go to Charleston in that state as soon as possible, to confer with counsel of the organization. President John Mitchell is determined that if possible there shall be redress for what the miners say was a conspired attempt at murder. The Mine Worker, the official organ, this week urges that a suit for damages be filed in the United States court for Indiana against Baldwin, at the head of the coal and iron police, and Senator S. B. Elkins and Henry G. Davis, who own the mining property at Norfolk, where the assault was committed.

Novel Swimming Match

Worthington, Ind., Aug. 23.—A swimming match, the contestants being men seventy-three years of age, is promised if Henry Williams, commonly called Uncle Henry, accepts the challenge which Henry Baker has sent him. The two men will be seventy-three the same day, and Mr. Baker suggests that each place $25 cash on the opposite bank of the river and the one reaching first is to have the $50 for his trouble.

Fatal Conflict.

Morroco, Ind., Aug. 23.—Two gangs of negroes, laborers on the new Walsh railroad, met near St. Mary, a little town west of here, after receiving their month's wages, and one gang attempted to hold up the other. In the fight that ensued one negro was killed by being shot in the breast, while two others received serious knife wounds. Three of the negroes were arrested and placed in jail at Watseka.

PERILOUS RIDE

Young Couple Float Three Days in Open Boat.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—After being afloat on Lake Michigan since Sunday evening in a small rowboat, John Chartres and Miss Zella Stewart of Evanston were rescued late yesterday afternoon. Both were in a precarious condition because of exposure and lack of nourishment and sleep. On Sunday afternoon Chartres called at the residence of Miss Stewart and asked her to go boat riding. They rented a small skiff and went out into the lake. About two hours after they departed a squall swept over the lake, and when nothing was heard of the couple it was thought that they had either been lost or blown to the middle of the lake and picked up by some passing steamer. Yesterday while the life-saving crew of Evanston was patrolling the lake in the effort to find some trace of them, the boat was discovered about ten miles from shore.

Chartres explained that during the squall one of his oars was broken and that, being unable to propel the boat, he had devoted all his energies to keeping it afloat. His strength was about gone when he and Miss Stewart were discovered, and he declared he could not have held out for another night.

Protesting Against Boycott.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Protests against the Chinese boycott of American goods continue to be received at the state department, but very few make any suggestions that losses have been incurred, although in one or two instances transportation companies have said that their has been a falling off in the shipments of American goods to China. No further reports indicating the progress of the boycott outside of Shanghai have been received. One instance of an attempt to insult the American flag was reported from Amoy. This happened a month ago, but the governor of the province promptly made amends and ordered all attempts at demonstration directed toward Americans to cease. The Washington government has no complaint to make of the local authorities in China, as the reports indicate that they have been prompt and efficient in the protection of American interests.

Woman Killed by Robber.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Mrs. S. E. Eize of New York city was shot and killed last night by a robber. Accompanied by Mrs. E. F. Wilson, also of New York, Mrs. Eize left the Del Prado hotel, where they were staying, for a short walk. At Fifty-eighth street and Washington avenue, a short distance from the hotel, they were stopped by two men, who demanded their valuables. Mrs. Eize started to run, when one of the men shot her in the head. Mrs. Eize died in a few minutes after being taken to the hotel.

Strike Grows at Jacksonville.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 23.—The fight between the union carpenters and members of the Builders' Exchange became more serious when the Structural Builders' Trades Alliance at a meeting held yesterday decided to call out all men engaged in structural work employed by members of the Builders' Exchange. More than 1,000 men are affected by this order.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

Bosworth, Mo., Aug. 23.—Four men were killed by the explosion of an engine on a dredge boat near Norborne, Mo., yesterday. The dead are: James Lynch of Bosworth, Isaac Wade of Norborne, and two unknown laborers. The bodies were hurled several feet from the wreck and were mutilated beyond recognition.

REMEDY FOR HAY FEVER

After Trying Other Treatments. Hyomei Was Used with Perfect Success.

Before the discovery of Hyomei the only advice a physician could give his hay fever patients, was to go away from home, but now anyone who is subject to this disease can, if Hyomei is used, stay at home without fear of the annual attack of sneezing, watery eyes, and other discomforts.

J. F. Forbes, a well known Western railroad man, whose home is at McCook, Nebraska, writes "I have never had any relief from any remedy for hay fever, even temporarily, until I discovered the merits of Hyomei. I always recommend it when occasion requires."

There is no offensive or dangerous stomach dosing when Hyomei is used. This reliable remedy for the cure of all diseases of the respiratory organs is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, so that the air taken into the throat and lungs is like that of the White Mountains or other health resort, where hay fever is unknown.

The fact that F. B. Johnson & Co. agree to refund the money to any hay fever sufferer who uses Hyomei without success, should inspire confidence in its power to effect a cure. A complete outfit costs only $1.00 and extra bottles but 50 cents.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Cheering Thousands Greet Vice President.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks, accompanied by Congressman and Mrs. David J. Foster, arrived here last night in Congressman Foster's private car from Manchester, Vt., and were welcomed at the station by thousands of citizens. Battalions of United States troops and the national guard escorted the vice president's party to the residence of Senator George R. Maltby, whose guest they are during their visit. A grand ovation was given to the president all along the route. Thousands of old veterans stood at attention near the Maltby residence, Mr. Fairbanks standing uncovered as his carriage passed them.

The vice president occupied a box at the campfire of the St. Lawrence County Veterans' association, now in convention, his presence being the occasion of an enthusiastic demonstration. Tonight the party will go to Alexandria Bay as guests of William B. Ridgely, comptroller of the currency. A reception will be tendered them in the evening at the Thousand Island House.

Indians Vote for One State.

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 23.—Resolutions declaring for immediate statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state were adopted yesterday by the statehood and constitution convention of the Indians of the five civilized tribes. Then after the appointment of a committee fifty-one, which is to draft a constitution for presentation to the convention, the gathering adjourned to await the work of the committee. The committee will meet daily, dividing the work of drafting the constitution among sub-committees. This it is believed will consume two or three weeks' time. The prohibitionists apparently have won their fight and will be permitted to prepare a strong prohibition plank.

Sunday School Gathering.

Clifton, Mass., Aug. 23.—A meeting of the central committee of the International Sunday School association convened here last night and will remain in session for several days. The opening services took the form of a meeting of praise and prayer. W. N. Hartsorn of Boston, chairman of the central committee, welcomed other members of the committee, and Hamilton S. Conant, general secretary of the Massachusetts Sunday School association responded. The central committee has charge of the work of the 153,000 Sunday schools in the United States, Canada, Cuba, the British West Indies, Mexico and Central America.

Another Kentucky Tragedy.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 23.—George Smith and James D. Smith, father and son and well-to-do farmers of Elmville, a little village of this county, were murdered while at work in the field on their farm yesterday by an unknown party. The elder Smith was killed instantly, a charge of shot penetrating his brain. The son received three wounds, one in the face and two in the back, given evidently as he sought to escape his murderer. Suspicion turned to Cal Newton, a neighbor of the farmer of equally good standing, and he was arrested. He denies guilt.

Case of Leprosy Cured.

Manila, Aug. 23.—What appears to be a well-authenticated instance of the cure of leprosy has been found here. A few weeks ago a patient who had been afflicted with leprosy and who had been under treatment for that disease, died of liver complaint. After the patient's death every part of the body was subjected to a searching microscopic examination by bacteriologists, but not the slightest trace of leprosy could be found. Dr. H. B. Wilkinson, the physician who treated the patient for leprosy, is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

Mediterranean Moths.

Minneapolis, Aug. 23.—Mediterranean moths have closed two Minneapolis flour mills. More mills are expected to shut down soon in order to be rid of these pests. The moths gather under the fine silk cloth through which the flour is sifted and form webs from one to four inches thick. They also eat the cloth, making it impossible to sift the flour.

MUNICIPAL TRANSACTIONS

Statement of Financial Expenditures by 175 American Cities.

Washington, Aug. 23.—According to a bulletin issued by the census bureau the aggregate financial transactions of the 175 cities of the United States having a population of over 25,000 equal in magnitude those of the national government excluding the postal service. The total corporate receipts for these cities amounted to $541,624,203 in 1903 and the total corporate expenditures to $535,804,206. The national debt in 1904 amounted to $895,157,410; the aggregate debt of the 175 cities exclusive of the sinking funds assets was $1,134,578,783. The receipts, expenditures and debt of the city of New York represent about one-third of the city totals. The bulletin is a compilation of data relative to the resources, transactions, plant and machinery of the municipal corporations, forming a sort of statistical inventory and balance sheet. It contains much detailed information concerning streets, sewers, street railroads, libraries, lighting, etc.

Sunday Papers Barred.

Acton Park, Ind., Aug. 22.—A suit was created at Acton Park when the Rev. Mr. Church, manager of the Southern Indiana Holiness association, declared his unwillingness to have the Sunday papers distributed as usual. He declares Sunday papers to be as much against religion as Sunday baseball.

Politician Found Dead.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 22.—The decomposed body of Wesley Saberton was found on the river bank above the city. The coroner is investigating. Saberton, who was fifty-five years old, was formerly a member of the city council and prominent in Democratic politics.

Car Hits Auto.

Muncie, Ind., Aug. 22.—While Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dyer were crossing a streetcar track in their automobile they were struck by a streetcar. Mrs. Dyer was probably fatally injured. Mr. Dyer was also badly hurt but assisted in caring for his wife. The machine was wrecked.

Strawboard Pollution.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 22.—Poisonous matter thought to have come from the strawboard works up stream, turned white-river black and fish dead and dying blocked the mill dam west of the city.

Real enjoyment is had when reading that clever magazine The Smart Set.

The Cameron family reunion was held today on the Ellis Noe farm south of Carrollton in Shelby county. The family is a large one, there being many representatives in Shelby, Rush and Hancock counties.

Havens & Riggs sold 160 acres of land this morning to Oliver Nash, of Connersville. Col. Ochiltree closed the deal, and the land sold for $85 an acre. Mr. Nash intends to move to this city, and his son will live on his farm.

Connersville News: Miss Bessie Williams entertained friends to dinner, Saturday evening, at her home on Mulberry street. Her guests were: Misses Inez and Gladys Lockhart, Marguerite and Mary Neutzenhelzer and Mattie Hogsett, of Rushville.

Connersville Examiner: Rushville people have heard the rumor that the C. H. & D. company will build a new modern passenger station at that place. Pressed brick is to be used. Maybe it wouldn't be a bad idea to run a locomotive through the Connersville depot.

A merchant may say advertising doesn't pay or nobody reads the papers. Let him be caught kissing his neighbor's wife or trying to hold up the side of a building and his tune changes, oh, so quickly, and he will almost get down on his knees to "keep it out of the paper."—Ex.

Greensburg Review: Dr. Albert Shauk, of Arlington, and Miss Ethel Shelborn, daughter of L. A. Shelborn, living in the Downeyville neighborhood, will be married at 8 o'clock on the evening of September 6th. The young people are well known here, and their many friends are already extending congratulations.

It is the general opinion of the farmers that the recent heavy rains will result in an especially large amount of ground being plowed for wheat. The ground is generally very difficult to break in the fall on account of the lack of moisture, but this fall is an exception as the ground is almost as easily plowed as in the spring after the snow and rains of the winter.

In pursuance of an order of the post-office department, promulgated in the August Postal Guide, there will be no delivery of mail on the twelve routes out of Rushville postoffice on New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day. These will be holidays for the rural carriers and of course being human they will take advantage of the opportunity to secure a little much needed rest.

Joseph Wainwright, Sr., while walking east on Seventh street about eight o'clock Tuesday morning, was taken suddenly ill. He sat down on the curb stone to rest and fainted away. People carried him to his home on West Third street and Dr. D. D. VanOsdol was summoned. In the fall, after fainting, Mr. Wainwright broke a shoulder blade. He is much better today.

Ed Newton, aged about thirty-three years, and residing at Morristown, dropped dead while on his way to catch the 11:40 a. m. L. & C. traction car yesterday at Morristown. The unfortunate man has been subject to heart trouble for several years and it was this dread disease that caused his sudden death. With thoughts of the noon-day meal prepared by a loving wife, Newton was wending his way homeward when death overtook him. He was walking between the tracks of the C. H. & D. railroad and the traction line not far from his home when he fell. Other persons traveling near saw him fall and ran to his aid. He breathed his last as they reached him. He was taken to his home.
